Hi everyone,

Today I have big news for AGF. It's time for me to hand over this great forum so that it can keep grooving and growing and get all the attention it deserves.

I have really had an incredible time here running this forum. You're the coolest community, I'm sad to go, but life and projects need me somewhere else at the moment.

You will soon meet Dan, who will take over the forum and migrate it to a new platform. I feel this is a great opportunity for AGF, as this board platform will be a big step forward : no more ads, a smoother user experience on any device and a dedicated support are some of the many benefits you will get. For all the rest, the content, the AGF spirit, our fantastic mods (if they're ok to go on), all this will stay the same.

I will be around some time to help and ease the migration.

Best wishes to you all ! Stay safe, keep on playing and posting !

Major Tom

I'm not a fan of the new site. I don't care for the layout and my new build thread with my son is not there. I'll try to get used to it, but I'm afraid I won't be there much, not like here. What a shame. This is the only place that I really liked and am a member of.

Thanks for your service.

What's the process for us -- what do we have to change in order to log onto AGF in the future? Is www.aguitarforum.com no longer going to work?

You can either use, email registered with AGF or username registered with AGF both should work. Existing users can not login with Gmail Connect at this moment.

The domain will stay but will be powered by different software called momoboard.com and all the data has been migrated to a new site and you won't be able to post a new thread here anymore. At the end, momoboard.com/aguitarforum = aguitarforum.com

I had to disable uBlock origin to get through the account login screens.

I do not now & have not ever owned a mobile phone. I'm on a desktop running Linux Mint with the Chromium Browser.

I have also lost access to the Moderators Forum.

It just hangs up on me. I'll miss AGF if it doesn't work for me as it's my home online. Guess I'll need to join another community if it doesn't straighten up.

Got any ideas on other communities?

When I signed on it gave me my real name not my user name. When I try to edit it says my user name is taken. It wont let me log off or try again. So much for simple. I will not post with my real name.
 I have been enjoying Steve Hoffman Music Forum though it's not a small community. adadad

I'm never excited about a change like this.

@Major tom you did a great job and I really appreciate it.

@Dan F I hope you can manage to do as well. This is a great community and I would hate to see it damaged or destroyed.
